Always the Best of Everything for the Least Money.

THE FIRST REMNANT SELLING

Since the Saks & Co.'s Stock Came Into Our Possession

Will Be Inaugurated Today.

What will happen to these odds and ends and broken lots will be very interesting to those who know what a remnant day means at the Busy Corner and the newly acquired annex. The goods that we have sacrificed in the past ten days were wonderful bargains, but the extra cutting perpetrated on these remnants is beyond comparison with the goods which were once considered the ideal merchandise of the Saks & Co.'s display.

Ladies' Ready-to-wear Department.

25 pairs of women's blouses, made of wool material and linen, which Saks & Co. sold for $1.50, will be sacrificed at.....	25c

Remnants from Saks' Linen Dept.

500 assorted remnants of unbleached and bleached table linens, in lengths from 1 1/2 to 4 yards, comprising all qualities, from the cheapest to the finest double satin damask, also a lot of half dozen bleached and unbleached napkins, 6-8 and 10-12 inch, also odds and ends of Turkish towels, and damask towels—all more or less sold from handling, will be sold for one-third less than regular value. This department still retains its old position—first floor, section F, Busy Corner.

Saks & Co.'s Silk Remnants Without a Limit.

It has been two weeks since this accumulation, and now that we have about 4,000 yards to offer, you will surely get the real essence of immense value. 1,000 yards of all-silk printed foulards, in especially good lengths and colorings—these goods Saks & Co. sold in the piece at $1.50, and in remnants at 19c per yard. 1,500 yards of all-silk printed satin foulards. This lot embraces Cheney Bros' best quality—many excellent designs, among them—suitable for waists or skirts, which Saks & Co. sold at $1.00 per yard, and in the piece in remnants at 39c per yard. 500 yds. fine all-silk crepe de chinos, consisting of extra fine sheer India linen, running in lengths from 1 1/2 to 5 yards, which Saks & Co. sold for $2.00, will be sacrificed at 12 1/2c per yard. An assorted lot of short ends of Swiss mulle, piques, organdy, fancy stripe and Persian lawns, India linens, batiste, and other fine goods, and long cloth, at just about half of what Saks & Co. sold them for. First floor, section F, Busy Corner.

Her agent said the police were notified of the occurrence and will investigate the matter.

Angry Over Loss of Lunch.

Philip Anderson, colored, took Lulu Dorsey, a dusky maiden, to Nottley Hall Monday night for an outing. Lulu had prepared a two-course lunch for the occasion and Philip had his appetite whetted to enjoy it. While Philip and Lulu were dancing some heartless wretch made away with the dainties and Philip, who was angry, proceeded to vent his rage on Lulu by knocking out one of her teeth. In the Police Court yesterday Philip was charged with assault and in default of a fine of $20 he will serve thirty days in jail.

Drove a Lame Horse.

John Young was fined $10 by Judge Kimball in the Police Court yesterday for cruelty to animals. Young is now a horse doctor. Formerly he devoted his healing abilities to treating people who had fits. It was said in court that Young had taken a crippled horse to treat and that he was caught driving him Wednesday. The horse was lame, a human being, said agent said, but Young swore positively that his treatment was not as efficacious that there was not much left in the beast—that he could not go lame if he wanted to.

Warned by Judge Kimball.

Mary Fields had Nancy Jackson in the Police Court yesterday for alleged disorderly conduct. She swore that Nancy Jackson lived in the same house with her in Madison Court northwest, and that of late she had made her life miserable. That of late she had made her life miserable.
